November 8, 2019 OLLI News

OLLI WILL BE OPEN ON VETERANS DAY MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11.

OLLI will be closed Wednesday through Friday of Thanksgiving
Week, NOVEMBER 27-29.

New Cafeteria

The University has opened a cafeteria on the 6th floor of our building. Currently, it is open from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM. There are breakfast foods (bagels, croissants, etc.), lunch items (soup, salads, and sandwiches), as well as drinks and snacks. The cafeteria is a great option at any time, but especially between classes and on cold or rainy days.

Member Appreciation Week's Success

Our first Member Appreciation was a resounding success. We can look forward to more social events that will take place.

From Tuesday, November 19, to Thursday, November 21, we are planning on having social breaks between classes where we will ask members to bring snacks to share with other OLLI members. These could either be made at home or store-bought, and placed in the social space either after the first class of the day at 11:15 AM, or before the last class of the day at 1:15 PM. Please e-mail Jeff Porter at djporter2@mac.com, our Social Coordinator, indicating your interest.

Lecture Series

There are still plenty of seats left in next week's lecture! Next Friday, November 15, the topic will be The Capital Area Food Bank--Providing Food and More, given by Radha Muthiah.

Radha Muthiah currently serves as the CEO of the Capital Area Food Bank. Under her leadership, the food bank is developing programs and services that “bundle” food with education, skill development, financial literacy training, housing, health and more in order to change the lives of those the food bank serves. As CEO, Muthiah leads a team that distributes over 30 million meals of healthy food, directly and through a network of 450 partners, to more than 400,000 food-insecure people in Washington each year.

To register for this lecture, click here. You will be prompted to create a username and password. If you do not have a username and password, you may call the OLLI office at 202-895-3860 to register.

Serendipities!

Our Social Committee-sponsored series called Serendipities! is underway. Throughout the year,

OLLI members who wish, for example, to share a thought-provoking or unusual experience, talk about a book they have written, or be part of a small panel on a timely topic can express their interest by e-mailing Social Committee Chair Jeff Porter at jeff.portermia@gmail.com or by filling out a Serendipities! proposal form here.

Our next talk will be given by Matthew Fink, titled Carter Glass: The Single Most Important Lawmaker In The History Of American Finance. Carter Glass served as a Congressman, Secretary of the Treasury, and Senator from 1902 to 1945. Glass authored three of our most important financial laws: The Federal Reserve Act of 1913, The Glass-Steagall Act of 1933, and The Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The issues that Glass dealt with are with us today. Our current president is threatening to fire the Federal Reserve Board chairman because he disagrees with its policies; and in 1999, Congress repealed the Glass-Steagall Act's provisions prohibiting banks from engaging in securities.

We welcome you to join us for this talk on Monday, November 18 at 11:45 AM in Room A on the 1st floor of our Spring Valley location. No registration is required.

Study Group Topics and Leaders

Many OLLI members have suggested topics they would like for future study groups, by way of the survey last spring and on the bulletin board in the Social Space. OLLI at AU is always looking for new class topics and study group leaders to teach them. Below is a list of some of the top suggestions by members. Do you or someone you know have an interest in leading a study group about one of these topics? The shorter February Shorts and summer sessions (June Minis and July Shorts) are a great way to get started teaching at OLLI. During the February and July Shorts, study groups meet 3-5 times during one week. During the June Minis, study groups meet once a week for four weeks. Alternatively, the regular semester is a good option for anyone wanting to delve into a topic in greater depth. OLLI offers an orientation for new SGLs before each fall and spring semester.

OLLI is currently accepting study group proposals for the February Shorts and the Spring Semester. The submission deadline is Monday, December 2.

Please let the office know at olli@american.edu if you or someone you know might be interested in teaching one of these topics or another one. We'll be happy to contact you to answer any questions and provide more information.

Study Group Proposals

The OLLI office is now accepting study group proposals for both the February Shorts and Spring Semester 2020. February Shorts are February 3-7 and the Spring Semester is March 2-May 8. During the February Shorts, study groups meet between 3-5 times over the course of one week. In the Spring Semester, study groups are 8-10 weeks long and meet once a week. OLLI's Curriculum Committee and Board of Directors review proposals for each academic session and approve the final list of classes.

New proposals from first-time study group leaders are welcome! For more information about leading a study group, please click here. You may also call the OLLI office at 202-895-4860 and we'll be happy to answer your questions.

If you would like to propose a study group, please click one of the links below. You will be prompted to login with your OLLI username/password or create an account if it's your first time. The proposal deadline for both sessions is Monday, December 2 at 8:00 AM.

Social Space Bulletin

In case you hadn't yet noticed, we have placed a large bulletin board in the Social Space on our fifth floor. This board's purpose is to provide a forum on special programs and events happening at OLLI and locally. Feel free to add any informative flyers or notices of fun happenings in the area.

Are You A Member of A Retirement Association

Last year, as part of OLLI at AU's diversity efforts, OLLI representatives spoke at meetings of the retirement organizations of the National Education Association (NEA), the State Department, and the World Health Organization (WHO). Also, the 1818 Society (of the World Bank) recently included an article about OLLI in its newsletter. We hope to continue speaking with such groups. If you are a member of a similar organization, please let us know by calling 202-895-4860 or e-mailing olli@american.edu.

OLLI Jackets

OLLI is now selling navy blue fleece jackets with the OLLI logo embroidered in white across the left front. These jackets have a collar, full zip front, and zippered pockets. Sample jackets in all sizes are available to try on in our office. The cost per jacket is $26 and all sales are final, no refunds. Purchases will be available for pick-up at the OLLI office on Mondays approximately two weeks after the order is placed. To place your order for an OLLI jacket, click here.

DC Kids Need Your Help

OLLI member Alan Romick and a group that he works with, the DC Tutoring & Mentoring Initiative (DCTMI), are asking for your help with DC youth.

With the school year underway, there's no better time to get involved as a volunteer tutor or mentor. Nearly two out of three students in DC read below grade level, and many more have other academic and social-emotional needs. The need is real and urgent. Sign up to tutor, read with a child, or simply provide a listening ear for as little as an hour per week.

DCTMI is eager to match you with one of our 50+ partner organizations and schools based on when and where you are available and other preferences. Our partners need help mornings, afternoons, and evenings throughout DC as well as in the surrounding suburbs.

Opportunities include...

- Fostering a student's love of reading during lunch at School Without Walls @ Francis Stevens
- Coaching a high schooler through college applications Thursday nights at the American Institutes for Research on Whitehurst Freeway
- Mentoring a foster child through monthly outings and weekly communication
- Helping small groups of middle schoolers with homework weeknights in Southeast
- And many more!

For more information and if you are interested in volunteering in this program, contact Alan at alan@headsweats.com.

Upcoming Events at American University

For any AU-specific event, please contact the sponsoring department directly.

AU SYMPHONIC BAND: THE DIVINE COMEDY

Sunday, November 10, 3:00 PM

Katzen Artz Center, Recital Hall

Tickets: $5 - Senior Citizens, AU Students/Faculty/Alumni; $10 - General Public

The ensemble tackles Robert W. Smith's devilishly difficult Symphony No. 1 for Band (The Divine Comedy), each movement depicting a portion of Dante's literary masterpiece. To register, click here.

AU JAZZ ORCHESTRA: FALL FOR JAZZ

Friday, November 15, 7:30 PM

Katzen Arts Center, Recital Hall

Tickets: $5 - Senior Citizens, AU Students/Faculty/Alumni; $10 - General Public

From big band to funk-rock to Latin sounds, AU's own jazz orchestra brings the swing. Conductor Josh Bayer is a guitarist, composer, and director who has performed at the Kennedy Center, The Detroit Opera House, and National Public Radio.

Featuring Marshall Keys on saxophone. "Marshall Keys' dulcet tones and earthy compositions conjure the spirits of jazzmen past and future. From mainstream to contemporary, from bebop to hip hop, he plays the saxophone with a sense of grace and emotion that is wholly without cliché." - Mike Sager, Esquire

EVENTS AT THE CENTER FOR CONGRESSIONAL AND PRESIDENTIAL STUDIES

Barbara Sinclair Lecture

Warren Building, Terrace Level, Room NT01

November 18, 6:00 PM

The American Political Science Association and the Center for Congressional and Presidential Studies invite you to the second annual Barbara Sinclair Lecture. Awarded to a prominent congressional scholar, this lecture is given in honor of Dr. Sinclair's significant and lasting contributions to the study of Congress. Professor Frances Lee of Princeton University will deliver the 2019 lecture. Reception to follow. Click here to RSVP.

LATE FALL EXHIBITIONS & EVENTS AT THE AU MUSEUM-KATZEN ARTS CENTER

Open Tuesday-Sunday, 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Free and fully accessible

Radical Link: A New Community of Women, 1855-2020

Curated by Sarah Gordon

November 9-December 15, 2019

Radical Link is the latest project by Tel Aviv-based multi-media artist Michal Heiman. Traversing time, space, gender, race, and institutional practices of asylum, Heiman offers a new way to extend solidarity to those who engage in acts of resistance by creating a new community. It includes women who have been subjugated by the Surrey County Asylum in London, and the San Servolo Asylum in Venice, asylum seekers, artists, activists, prosecutors, gatekeepers, and those who have suffered under the violence of racism and misogyny. Through the strategies of intervention and the use of archival materials, photographs, films, sound work, and her presence in the gallery, she generates the political, cultural, gendered, and psychic conditions of a potential "radical link."

The exhibition is accompanied by a fully illustrated book, including essays by curator Sarah Gordon; Sharon Sliwinski, Professor of Information and Media Studies at the University of Western Ontario; Orna Ben-Naftali, Émile Zola Chair for Human Rights and Lecturer at the Haim Striks School of Law; and artist Michal Heiman.

Dark World: Photographs by Frank Hallam Day

November 9-December 15, 2019

Over the past dozen years, Frank Hallam Day's personal work has been devoted largely to exploring the world at night. The visually intriguing dark world offers mysteries and ambiguities, and lends itself to the introspective creative space he prefers. His work comments on a number of salient themes: the relationship between contemporary society and nature and the pace of technological change, aging, isolation, and obsolescence. The markedly formal, unabashedly elegiac images also investigate influences from the history of painting to a degree unusual in contemporary photography. Day's work has been described as "intimate yet subtly epic." He looks for an "annunciatory light" transforming everyday things, like plastic market bags and public phones, into objects of special significance. In the words of Louis Jacobson at the Washington City Paper, he "showers a ray of almost spiritual light into the night's dark corners."

Ongoing Exhibitions:

Topographies of Life: Pam Rogers, Lynn Sures, Mel Watkin

September 3-December 15, 2019

Curated by Jennifer Riddell, Presented by the AU Museum Project Space

Using the medium of drawing to varied and distinctive effect, Rogers, Sures, and Watkin trace human connections to the natural world—across time and varied landscapes. The three artists work from both a consciousness of drawing's ties to illustration and evidence; and, the medium's unique ability to transmit the artist's "hand" and personal response to their subject. From the deserts of Kenya, forests of the Midwest, to the Potomac watershed, these artists are deeply attuned to the mutually affecting relationship between the anthropological and natural worlds.

OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

Our Mission

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at American University is an association of, by, and for the people in the Washington, DC area who wish to continue to study and learn. OLLI at AU is dedicated to the proposition that learning is a lifelong process and that curiosity never retires.
